Your Rights:

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights.

This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get a copy of your claims and health record:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You can ask to see, or get a copy, of your claims or health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this. We will send a copy, or summary, of your claims or health information. Usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge you a small fee.
Ask us to correct your claims and health information:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You can ask us to correct claims and health information we have about you if you think it is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this. We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.
Request confidential communications:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You can ask us to contact you in an exact way. For example to call you at home or an office phone. Send your mail to a different address. We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.
Ask us to limit what we use or share:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You can ask us not to use or share your health information. We are not required to agree to your request. We may say “no” if it would affect your care.
Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You can ask for a list of the times we have shared your health information. Up to six years from the date you ask. We will include all the disclosures except for those used for treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We will provide one accounting a year free. But will charge a fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.
Get a copy of this privacy notice:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have asked to get the notice electronically. We will send you a paper copy promptly.
Choose someone to act for you:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You can give someone the right to act on your behalf. That person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will make sure the person has the right and can act for you.
File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You may file a complaint if you do not agree with how we used, or disclosed, your health care information. Contact us to file one. You can file a complaint with the State of Oregon or the Federal Government. Follow the instructions on the last page. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices:

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.
